GUIDE OF SERVICES FOR BICYCLE ROUTES

TRANSPORT CONNECTIONS ON ROUTE:

The first and last stages are close to the cities of Granada – the former – and Seville – the latter. Both cities are connected by train (www.renfe.es) and bus (www.alsa.es). With ALSA, it is possible to take your bicycle with you, but we advise to follow a series of recommendations before traveling, you can find them here.

The first stage, which begins in Alcalá la Real, is located about 60 kilometers from Granada. From Granada you can get to Alcalá la Real by bus or taxi:

- Autocares Contreras (you can take your bike with you, under request)
- Taxi Rafael Molina, Alcalá la Real.
Bicycle transfer, capacity up to 3 bicycles and 8 people.+34 652 83 41 32

The last stage, which ends in Utrera, is connected to Seville through a commuter train (Line C1), which operates regularly. www.renfe.es

Halfway along the route there are also other towns that are connected by train to Seville and Granada.

- From Puente Genil, Puente Genil-Herrera Train Station (AVE Trains) www.renfe.es
- From Osuna www.renfe.es
